

Development Of a haemophilia PHysiotherapy INtervention for optimum musculoskeletal health (DOLPHIN)

STUDY NEWSLETTER - July 2018

RECRUITMENT

3/20 (15%)

STUDY STATUS

We are pleased to confirm that the study received HRA approval on 25th May 2018. Site specific approval to open the study at East Kent Hospitals University NHS Trust was obtained on 31st May 2018. Site specific assessment to open the study at Barts Health NHS Trust is currently in progress. Three participants have been recruited.

STUDY MILESTONES

Intervention
finalised

Following focus groups with physiotherapists, children with haemophilia and their families the intervention was finalised in September, 2017. HRA application was submitted 23rd November 2017.

First participant recruited

East Kent Hospitals University NHS Trust : 1st June 2018
Barts Health NHS Trust: In Progress

Final participant recruited

Final study visit

Final report disseminated

Study Contacts

Chief Investigator: Dr David Stephensen david.stephensen@nhs.net

Research Monitoring Committee: Prof Oona Scott O.M.Scott@uel.ac.uk

Study Sponsor: East Kent Hospitals University NHS Trust ekh-tr.researchanddevelopment@nhs.net

Research Team: Melanie Bladen (Great Ormond Street Hospital NHS Trust); Liz Carroll (Haemophilia Society); Prof Wendy Drechsler (Kings College London); Dr Gillian Evans (East Kent Hospitals NHS Trust); Dr Ferhana Hashem (University of Kent); Dr David Lowery (University of Kent);; Dr Tracy Pellatt-Higgins (University of Kent); Dr David Stephensen East Kent Hospitals NHS Trust)